Curtis Whitmer brought in a piece Curtis Whitmer brought in a piece of walnut that is certainly a curriosity of walnut that is certainly a curriosity of walnut that is certainly a curriosity in some particulars. In 1857 the old Platte county railroad, to which Holt county subscribed $75,000, was partly graded through this was partly graded through this end of the county, but the war coming on, it was abandoned. Near the Whitmer place was a cuivert, and an abutment was put in of walnut. Curtis was exploring around, and had some excavating to do, and after getting down several feet below the surface, he came upon a part of this old culvert, and found the walnut lumber in a perfect state of Trely ruined.

—Dan Sipes received a car of lumnut lumber in a perfect state of preservation. He brought us in a piece, fixt inches and half inch thick, and my, how we wish we had a piece of furniture made from this old walnut, in our relic shop.
